April 2009
Volume 34 No. 2

Organized for the purpose of preserving the Theatre Organ to perpetuate the understanding and enjoyment of the instrument and its music

April Meeting

The April Meeting will be held in the Courtroom Theatre located in:

The McKinney Performing Arts Center
111 N. Tennessee—McKinney, TX 75069
at 2:30 PM on Sunday April 19, 2009

Performing on the NTC-MPAC Mighty Wurlitzer REGINALD PEAKE

For this month's regular meeting, chapter member Reginald Peake will be our featured artist. He has some previous Pizza Parlor experience and welcomes the opportunity to again perform on a theatre pipe organ. I've heard him at practice and he's good.

Come and enjoy!

Refreshments will be provided by the chapter.

A note from the Secretaries desk!

Hello to all! What a great spring time we're having! I think Mother Nature is playing tricks on all of us. Well, I want to say THANKS to Ken Brown for filling in for me at our last meeting. I was bringing my wife home from the hospital that day, and knew I couldn't get to McKinney in time for the meeting. My wife is doing much better and we are working on keeping her blood sugar under control.

The Traveling Organ Education Program had its second school visit. Ms Holly Bianchetta, music teacher at McGowen Elementary School, was very pleased with our presentation. She stated she was going to E-Mail the rest of McKinney's Elementary School music teachers saying she highly recommends our program. She already told us she wants us back for the next school year. We already have another request for our educational program from another elementary school in the McKinney Independent School District.

If you know of any music teachers elsewhere in the North Texas Area, who might like our education program brought to their schools, you can either print the flyer and give it to them or direct them to our web site. We do have an Education link which will take you directly to the Education page.

Well, that's all I have for now, and I'm looking forward to seeing you on April 19th. See you at the Console!
